

Maintaining Accurate Boxing Records

Please contact Nick Delong (Ratings Chairman) at cnbaratings@gmail.com or Daniel Doiron at ddoiron.cnba@gmail.com for consideration if your boxing record has been omitted from the ratings.

Special Notice: It is imperative that designated Boxing Commissions and Boxing Promoters submit the results of boxing cards. This also includes Canadian based fighters boxing outside of Canada. The Canadian National Boxing Authority (C.N.B.A.) recognizes all active boxers.

Male and female boxers can remain rated in their respective weight classification as long as they have fought within the past 18 months in all regions where the Canadian National Boxing Authority (C.N.B.A.) ranks boxers.

Champions and rated boxers can receive a one hundred and twenty (120) day extension if warranted for illness, injuries, legal or other crisis at the sole discretion of the CNBA.

Additionally, it is important to note that the Canadian National Boxing Authority (C.N.B.A.) recognizes all bouts, including 2-minute rounds, which have been sanctioned by Boxing Commissions worldwide in male or female weight classifications.

NOTE: Rankings alone do not constitute any kind of guarantee that fighters will be permitted to box for any of the Canadian National Boxing Authority (C.N.B.A.) Championships. All Championship Bouts must be approved at the discretion of the Canadian National Boxing Authority (C.N.B.A.) to safeguard the health and well being of all boxers.

The Canadian National Boxing Authority (C.N.B.A.) rankings are updated on a month-by-month bases, at the discretion of the Canadian National Boxing Authority (C.N.B.A.) Ranking Committee.

The Canadian National Boxing Authority (C. N.B.A.) recognizes bouts in Canada and abroad that have been sanctioned by an existing Commission or Boxing Body.

The Canadian National Boxing Authority (C.N.B.A.) utilizes the Unified Rules of Boxing to regulate all of its sanctioned bouts.

Nick Delong
Ratings Chairman